◆ ABOUT THE ◆

OLD HOMES and gardens

JUNE 28 & 29

Explore the private homes of the third oldest town in North Carolina during The Old Homes Tour in the quaint seaport of Beaufort. Since 1960, the Old Homes Tour has been the perfect opportunity to explore Beaufort's private homes, glorious gardens, historic buildings, and churches. The Beaufort Historic Site will be showcasing its six authentically restored houses and buildings, as well as the gardens on the 2-acre historic site.

The Old Homes Tour has always been a time of community involvement. This year, especially after Hurricane Florence, those who live here are passionate about welcoming back our visitors. Around town during the tour, you will find great food at our restaurants, local treasures in our stores, and wild horses to view across Taylor's Creek.

The Puckett Home

The Terwilliger Home

Take a break from all the houses to explore the beautiful gardens on the tour for landscaping inspiration.

Celebrating its 59th anniversary, the Old Homes tour has evolved into a much larger event with diverse activities. As Beaufort grows into a town of old and new homes, the Old Homes Tour has also grown. Visitors now can enjoy exploring the historic homes with all their warmth and character while also visiting contemporary homes with their amazing innovative designs. The tour captures the variety of houses that visitors can find in charming Beaufort.

Additional events will give guests a week packed full of accompanying activities that can appeal to book lovers, history fanatics, gardeners, and designers. Make sure to check out all the offerings as you plan your trip to Beaufort!

Tickets are $20 and are good for both days of the tour. It is recommended to start the tour at the Beaufort Historic Site where programs, maps and a guide to all of the activities will be available.
